The Anniversary of the Dedication of St Elizabeth Ann Seton

Daily Quote from the early church fathers: My words shall not pass away, by Gregory the Great (540-604 AD) Sunday November 15, 215

"Nothing of this world is more durable than the heavens and the earth, and nothing in the order of nature passes away more quickly than speech. Words, as long as they are incomplete, are not yet words. Once completed they cease utterly to be. In fact they cannot be perfected except by their own passing away. Therefore he says: "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass." As if he were openly to say: all that seems to you enduring and unchangeable is not enduring and without change in eternity. And everything of mine that seems to pass away is enduring and without change. My speech, that seems to pass away, utters thoughts (sententiae manentes) which endure forever."

Looking Ahead:

Mass on Thanksgiving will be at 11:00am. We will not have Holy Hour that day.

There will be NO regular monthly Potluck in December, due to the Anniversary of the dedication to our church. [potluck]

There will be no CCD on November 29. Enjoy your Thanksgiving Holiday.
