A Recent Eucharistic Miracle

In 2013, in Poland, a bleeding host proved to be precisely that, as it was announced by Bishop Zbigniew Kiernikowski, of the Diocese of Legnica:

“On 25th December, 2013 during the distribution of the Holy Communion, a consecrated Host fell to the floor and then was picked up and placed in a water-filled container (vasculum). Soon after, stains of the red colour appeared. The former Bishop of Legnica, Stefan Cichy, set up a commission to observe the phenomenon. In February 2014, a tiny red fragment of the Host was separated and put on a corporal. The Commission ordered to take samples in order to conduct the thorough tests by the relevant research institutes.

In the final announcement of the Department of Forensic Medicine we read as follows:

In the histopathological image, the fragments of tissue have been found containing the fragmented parts of the cross striated muscle. (...) The whole (...) is most similar to the heart muscle with alterations that often appear during the agony. The genetic researches indicate the human origin of the tissue.

In January this year the whole matter was presented to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith in the Vatican. Today, according to the recommendations of the Holy See, it was ordered the parish vicar Andrzej Ziombro to prepare a suitable place for a display of the Relic so that the faithful could give it the proper adoration.”

A wonderful gift to Poland, and for the many pilgrims who will be heading to Poland this year, either for World Youth Day or their personal intentions, in this Year of Mercy.

If you were invited to a stranger's house or even an acquaintance house, would you go? If you went, would you be comfortable? Would you wish you knew this person more before you entered their house? Now, while on Earth, is the time to learn more about God and the Holy Family. Besides, showing God how much we love him and need Him, maybe God put us here to learn about Him, get to know Him, to remove the wall that ignorance of him caused. Once you begin to really try to learn more about God and our faith, things will begin to happen. Your heart will be truly opened and you will yearn for more.

Among the several ways to begin this experience, one of my favorites is the St Paul Center for Biblical Theology. The founder is Scott Hahn. When you go to the Web site there are different free courses you can take. One set of courses is an audio version. The courses include different gospels, Church History and etc. Another set of courses are not audio and they include, covenant love, Genesis to Jesus, the lambs supper and Mass and others. These you do on your own time. StPaulcenter.com

Another great website is Catholic.com

Here there are forums, blogs, apologetics and more. If you have a question about our faith, you can get an answer here. Along with answers, you can go to the website and learn many things about our faith.

Spring is Here! Time to Plant Flowers Outside.

If anyone would like to donate towards outside flowers, please do so by putting your donation into an envelope marked 'flowers' and place the envelope in the collection basket. Also, you can donate in flowering plants. Thanks in advance
